What Makes Christmas Happen?

What makes Christmas “happen” for you? Where does the joy of the season come alive in you? Is it in the carols? The celebrations? The candlelight services? The music of the Advent season? Perhaps you find it in the shopping and gift-giving. Maybe you see the love of the season in the sparkling eyes of a child or feel it in a loved one’s hug.

Whatever it is, during this holiday season with all its frenzied festivities, stop and remember that night in the stable, those mingled smells of animals and hay, that pain and subsequent joy in the birth of one small child. Breathe deep and feel with Mary, with Joseph, the shepherds, the angels. Feel the birth of Jesus. What is it to experience such joy, such peace? Verbally express to someone close to you what the birth of Christ means to you at this point in your life. Be joyful! Experience God’s love and peace.

Words To Live By

- If everyone is thinking alike, then somebody isn’t thinking. –George Patton
- Try not to become a man of success, but rather a man of value. –Albert Einstein
- Failure is only the opportunity to begin again more intelligently. –Henry Ford
- Let us give ourselves to discerning this hidden God, who yet shows himself forth to all who have ears to hear and eyes to see. –John Burns
- Should a total stranger watch us this year, what would be his definition of Christmas?
- Remember: the real star was in the manger, not in the sky!

I Brake for Christmas

The bumper sticker caught my eye. Made me think. Even aroused some guilt. I was on the freeway as his car was pulling off. My day had been full, and it was far from over. Stuffed in my pocket was a list; most of the items not yet purchased. A little panic rushed over the backroads of my mind as I divided up all the things yet to be bought in those few days left before Christmas. The guy didn’t seem in much of a hurry, which irritated me a bit, yet it told me his sign was for real. I began to study the words in my head. They started making sense. I BRAKE FOR CHRISTMAS Easing up on the accelerator and releasing my frown, I began to calm down my inner motor with questions like: Why the hurry? What’s the rush? Could this explain the reason you’ve been unable to enjoy the spirit of the season? Psalm 46:10 drifted into my mind like the sound of a distant bell on a clear morning. “Be still and know that I am God...”
