Who Started Sunday School?

The concept of a Sunday School came from a Christian layman whose name was Robert Raikes. Mr. Raikes began to notice that many of the children of the working class in his city (Gloucester, England) were unable to read or write. It was almost impossible for them to go to school because they were expected to work in factories 16 hours a day, six days a week. He noticed, also, that on their day off, children had little to do but roam the streets.

Believing that education—particularly education about the teaching of the Bible and Christian doctrine—could make a difference in young lives, Raikes set out to help the needy children. To begin, he found four Christian women who could teach reading and writing with a particular emphasis on Christian themes. He paid them a small wage to gather and teach children in a private home.

Surprisingly, some clergymen were disturbed that Bible lessons were being taught by unordained people. Fortunately, other clergymen saw the purpose and value of such teaching and encouraged it.

The Sunday School movement soon spread all across England. Mr. Raikes opened the first school in 1780. Eight years later, there were already more than 250,000 children enrolled in Sunday Schools. Today, almost every church in the world has opportunities for Christian education.

We will have hot dogs, beans, chips and drinks for all who came and helped unload the pumpkins.

November 9th, 2024, at 8:30 a.m. will be a business meeting for the Methodist Men with no other activity planned at this time. We will be discussing the upcoming Churchwide Christmas Dinner on December 7, 2024, at 6:00 p.m.

The Methodist Men will not have a breakfast meeting in December.

Any man at Trinity is welcome to attend any of our meetings. Please continue to pray for the Holy Spirit to come upon Trinity Global Methodist Church in the coming months and years.

God Bless You

Words To Live By

- The gospel is not something only to go to church to hear—but to go from church to tell.
- If you believe in prayer, pray; if you believe in serving, serve; if you believe in giving, give.
- The smile on your face is the light in the window that tells people that you are at home.
- The Lord didn't burden us with work; he blessed us with it.
- An education never hurt anybody who was willing to learn after he got it.
- If you must whisper in church, whisper a prayer!
- Shortly after his election as Pope, John XXIII was asked by a visitor about how many people worked at the Vatican. "Oh, about half of them," he replied.

The Lord's Prayer ?

Two men were arguing about religion, and as the discussion heated up, one said to the other, "I'll bet you $5 dollars you don't know the Lord's Prayer!" The other said, "I'll take that bet," and he started to pray: "Now I lay me down to sleep; I pray the Lord my soul to keep." "Well, I'll be," said the first man. "You win. I didn't think you could do it."

Thank You from the Bread Of Life

Just a little reminder of how grateful we are for your kind spirit and generous donations.
We are forever grateful for God's Blessings.

Sincerely,
Bread Of Life
