Ownership And Stewardship

We get so caught up in acquiring and securing that we may forget the wisdom of the psalmist who wrote: “The earth is the Lord’s and the fullness thereof, the world, and those who dwell therein...” (Psalm 24:1). That is as clear as it gets. The bottom line is we do not own a solitary thing. God the Creator who brought everything into being owns it all: the earth and everything on the earth, even “those who dwell therein.”

Yes, we too are “owned” by God, not as slaves but as children of a loving Creator whose desire is to have a parent/child relationship with us.

Furthermore, God loves and respects us so much that we have been given stewardship over God’s beautiful world in its totality. You and I are responsible for the earth and “the fullness thereof.” God trusts us to be caretakers of the whole of creation.

Remember, we have final and absolute ownership over nothing. Yet, we have the privilege of stewardship over everything. How thoughtful of God!

Of course such an honor given to us obligates us to manage the time, talent and resources God has given to us in very responsible ways. Think of it as a wonderful privilege!

Words Of Wisdom

- Excellence is to do a common thing in an uncommon way.
- Don't find fault. Find a remedy.
- Discipline is the soul of an army. It makes small numbers formidable, procures success to the weak and esteem to all.
- Love is a fabric which never fades, no matter how often it is washed in the water of adversity and grief.
- Even though we can't have all we want, we ought to be thankful we don't get what we deserve.
- It isn't what you have in your pocket that makes you thankful, but what you have in your heart.
- A real family man is one who looks at his new child as an addition rather than a deduction.
- If you want to see people's lives touched and changed by the Lord, you must love.

I am the Bible

- † I am the Bible, God's wonderful library. I am always---and above all---the truth.
- † To the weary pilgrim, I am a strong staff.
- † To the one who sits in darkness, I am glorious light.
- † To those who stumble beneath heavy burdens, I am sweet rest.
- † To him who has lost his way, I am a safe guide.
- † To those who are sick in sin, I am healing strength and forgiveness.
- † To the discouraged, I am a glad message of hope.
- † To those who are distressed and tossed about by the storms of life, I am an anchor, sure and steadfast.
- † To those who search for salvation, I reveal the Savior of the world.
- † I AM THE BIBLE!
